EYES ON THE NEXT U.S. SENATE.

NATIONAL CANDIDATES MUST CARRY THE LEGISLATURES.

The Successors of 28 U. S. Senators to Be Elected by the Legislatures Chosen Next Year-Republican Plurality in the Senate Now 22, and Will Be 20.

Politicians, Republicans and Democrats. he came over from Washington last night. and who are to return to-night, had something to say about the national political game, which was inaugurated from the nour that the polls closed in the various States on Nov. 3. It was the opinion of a majority of these politicians that no man can foresee what may turn up to change the wans before Congress adjourns next spring.

On only one point did a majority agree, and that was that the Republicans and the Democrats must nominate candidates for President and Vice-President who will have strength enough to carry with their election the control of the United States Senate. These politicians said that a good many laymen were giving altogether too much attention to the candidates for President and Vice-President of the two parties, and they went on to say that political wise men who were in the sub-cellars of political management are more than usually interested in the continued control of the Senate The Legislatures to be elected in 1904

BRIDGE ENGINEER WHIRLIGIG. Comfortable Place for Nichols Said to Be Awaiting Tammany's Infare.

Bridge Commissioner Lindenthal anrounced yesterday that he had abolished the office of chief engineer of his department, which has been vacant since May, 1902, when Lefferts L. Buck was removed because he criticised Mr. Lindenthal's new bridge plans. Mr. Lindenthal thinks that, as each of the bridges is cared for by a superintending engineer, a chief engineer for the department is superfluous. Mr. a superintending engineer, a chief engineer for the department is superfluous. Mr. Buck's salary was $7,500, although C. C. Martin, who was deposed to make place for Mr. Buck, got $10,000 a year. It is said that the office will be restored when Tammany comes into power and that the place will go to O. F. Nichols, who was the engineer in charge of the Williamsburg Bridge, but who was discharged a few weeks ago because at a public hearing held by the Aldermen he publicly condemned the Commissioner's eye-bar cable scheme for the Manhattan bridge. scheme for the Manhattan bridge.

PROF. SQUIRES DEFEATED.

Official Returns Show That His Republican Opponent Has a Majority of Three. TICA, Nov. 14 .- It is more than probable that the Second Assembly district of Oneida county will be represented by a Republican after all. The first returns indicated the election of Prof. William H. Squires of Hamilton College, Democrat, but the official returns filed with the Board of Supervisors show that Jay A. Pratt, Republican, has a majority of three over Squires. A contest in the courts is not unlikely, owing to the closeness of the vote. FIVE VOTES FOR DEVERY In Rockaway and It Takes Seven Rocka-

PIRATE BAND BROKEN UP. Boys' Mothers Found Their Cave and

There'll Be No More Kidnapping. HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 14.-Willie Livingstone, a small boy resident of Hartford's exclusive region known as Lord's Hill, read a romantic story of bandits with headquarters in a cave. He emulated the example and dug a great cave in the back yard of his home on Niles street. A subterre ean entrance led into the underground room, and there the bandits met. The little Johnston boys, who live at 201 Farmington avenue, were wending their way to the Trinity Church choir rehearsal when the bandit chief spied them. One of the boys got to the rehearsal and sang his songs all right. The other did not appear and his brother would not tell where he was. Upon his return home his mother asked where Johnny was, and she got this answer

"Johnny cannot come home. He's a prisoner in a cave."

Mrs. Johnston was horrifled, and the younger brother was made to lead his mother to the place where Johnny dropped from sight. A little hole in the ground was seen, and repeated calls brought the bandit chief, Willie Livingstone, to the street. Johnny Johnston had just sworn to be a bandit for the rest of his natural life and the shackles which had bound him were removed. He was a bold, bad bandit and thirsted for blood.

The bandits were just planning whom else they could kidnap and initiate into the are to elect successors to the following order, when Mrs. Johnston spoiled the fun. She got hold of Mrs. Livingstone, and together they made a raid on the cave and subway passage, and out filed the bandits. There was little fight in them. The boy prisoners had been beaten with straps taken from sewing machines.

RELIEF FOR SCHENECTADY.

Freight Trains That Now Block Traffic Will Go Around the City.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 14 .- For the first time in many years this town will tomorrow be relieved of the seemingly endless stretch of freight trains which have been such a serious menace to traffic here on all the principal streets. The New York Central railroad's "detour," a double line of tracks around the city, will be put in operation to-morrow, and all freight trains, save those made up especially for this town, will go around the town instead of passing will go around the town instead of passing directly through the city and blocking traffic, all crossings being at grade.

This detour not only relieves the congestion in the city, but it serves to avoid the grade between the city and Carmen, and will to a great extent do away with the "pusher" engines, which have been necessary to help heavy trains up the hill east of the city. Some of these will be used still in helping heavy passenger trains up the grade, but the number will, it is estimated, be cut down fully 50 per cent. be cut down fully 50 per cent.

BAD CHECK FROM ACTRESS.

Amelia Summerville Says She Got It From Managers.

Amelia Summerville, the actress, was examined in supplementary proceedings yesterday in the City Court to discover why she cannot pay a judgment for $218 obtained by R. H. Neale, manager of the Vendome Hotel. Neale says that he cashed Vendome Hotel. Neale says that he cashed a two-hundred-dollar check for Miss Summerville which was returned marked "N.G." Miss Summerville testified that she was without means, save her salary, and that she was willing to pay the judgment in installments if Neale would engage to sue the theatrical managers from whom she says she got the worthless check. She said that she was divorced from Frederick Runnels some years ago, but she laughed at the suggestion that she might be receiving alimony from an actor. She is now married to Max Eugene, a singer, but she has not seen him in almost four years. She has two children, aged 13 and 10 years, and lives at the Professional Women's League, 108 West Forty-fifth street.

TAMMANY DECLINED HIS SER-VICES IN LAST CAMPAIGN.

Thought It Could Get Along Without Him Towne, 30-Day U. S. Senator, Picked Out to Take McClellan's Seat in Congress

"David B. Hill came to town during the ecent municipal fight in New York city," said a well informed Dem crat at the Democratic Club last night, "and wanted to make a speech for McClellan, Grout and Fornes. Mr. Delany, McClellan's manager, declined the offer of Mr. Hill on the ground that the Democratic party of Greater New York could get along not only without Mr. McLaughlin, but without Mr. Hill."

While Leader Charles F. Murphy and Mayor-elect McClellan have sent no word into New York city from Hot Springs, Va., or Washington, as to their intentions concerning Mr. McClellan's successor in Congress, it was generally understood last night that Charles A. Towne would be nominated to succeed Mr. McClellan in the special Congress election which Gov. Odell must call after Mr. McClellan returns from Washington, where he is attending the extraordinary session. Mr. McClellan represents the Twelfth district, and in the contest last year received 21,275 votes to 7,035 for Charles Shoengood, Republican.

The nomination of Towne in the district would be equivalent to an election. Towns was formerly a Republican Congressman from the Duluth district, Minnesota, but he from the Dufuth district, Minnesota, but he went over to Bryan in 1896. Senator Hanna chairman of the Republican National Committee, directed part of his energies in that memorable fight toward beating Towne for relection to Congress, and was successful. Towne then gave all of his political interest to the Bryan cause, and in May, 1900, at Sloux Falls, was nominated for Vice-President by the Popullists. He kansas City Convention of Democrats, held in July, 1900, would confirm the norm nation of Towne for Vice-President by the Popullists, but the Kansas City Convention flung Towne aside and nominated Adlait. E. Stevenson. Since then Mr. Towne has been a resident of New York city, and has been a resident of New York city, and has been a resident of New York city, and has been a plutocrat, associating with excaption of the loop of the loop before Adlait E. WEST END THEATRE WON'T PAY with | 74-2 per Cent for Booking-Weber & Fields

Say Commissions Come Off Other End. Albert Hayman and Klaw & Erlanger are suing Weber & Fields in the Supreme Court for an accounting on the gross receipts of the West End Theatre last season. Through their counsel, A. H. Hummel, they say that under an agreement made on Jan. 25, 1902, they agreed to book the attractions for the theatre in return for 7½ per cent. of the gross receipts. There is said to be about $5,000 involved in the suit.

"This winter I caught another cold, and before it got such a hold on my system I took a few doses of Peruna and the cold disappeared as if by magic. I feel that I owe your medicine a great debt, and sending my thanks to you is but a slight return for the benefits received."—Mrs. E. Maher. catarrh.

A Case of Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs Cured by Perruina.

Miss Emelie A. Haberkorn, 2251 Gravols Ave., St. Louis, Mo., writes: "For over two years I was troubled with catarrh of the pelvic organs. I heard of Dr. Hartman's book, "The Ills of Life." I read it and wrote to the doctor, who answered my letter promptly. I began taking treatment as soon as possible. I ongue cannot express how I suffered with my stomach, and I also was troubled with catarrh of the head. I didn't feel like myself for a long time. So I began taking Peruna. I have taken four bottles, and now I cannot praise it enough.

"When Croker returns," continued his friend, "he will take no part in Tammany politics. Mr. Croker has seen for a number of years that it was the better part and the wiser part for him to retire as leader of title as Boss emeritus. He has been shrewder than Hugh McLaughlin of Brooklyn, who stayed in the game too long. Croker has been shrewder than Hill, who has also stayed in the game too long. It may be said now that when Croker went to England immediately after the election of Low, two years ago, he retired from Democratic two years ago, he retired from Democratic politics with the understanding that Hill and McLaughlin would also retire. Hill managed the gubernatorial fight last year, and lost an open and shut political game, and Mr. McLaughlin, in the recent fight, after participating in a Democratic city convention, did all he could to beat the candidates of that convention.

"James Shevlin," continued this important Democrat, "stood by Mr. McLaughlin, and Mr. Shevlin and Martin W.Littleton, elected Borough President of Brooklyn, are not ready to accept Senator Patrick Henry McCarren as the Democratic boss of Brook-

"Many people are talking nowadays, continued this Democrat, who has had long talks with Mr. Murphy and Mr. McClellan, "as to the retention of important heads of departments who participated in the Low departments who participated in the Low departments who participated in the Low Administration, and who have always been Democrats, Murphy and McClellan have a good precedent to act upon if they so desire, for the reason that Grout and Fornes were taken from the Low camp and nomi-nated by a Democratic city convention. nated by a Democratic city convention. Still, no man has authority to say what Mr. Murphy and Mr. McClellan will do until they return to New York City. The disposition of Murphy and McClellan, however, it may be said, is to so act that fusion movements in New York City during their domination of Tammany Hall shall be unnecessary."

LOST WATCH ON THE UMBRIA. Woman Passenger Says It Was Taken From

Her Handbag in the Music Room. Mrs. E. S. Skinner of Chicago, who was a passenger on the Umbria, which arrived last night, reported to the purser last Wednesday that she had left her $100 gold watch in a handbag in the women's music room and that while she was in another part of the ship for a few moments some one took it. The purser made a fruitless investiga-tion, and last night the Cunard Company's detectives made another at the pier. the police were notified.

Yesterday it was announced that the necessary $4,000 had been rejsed. Then Dr. Scott sent a telegram to Mr. Voorhees, at Clinton, N. J., apprising him of this fact. This brings Mr. Voorhees's gifts to the college up to $60,000.

It has also been announced that the valuable collection and library of the late Albert H. Chester, professor of mineralogy and

H. Chester, professor of mineralogy and geology at Rutgers College has been given to the institution by his son, A. H. Chester.

It consists of 4,850 specimens.

Experts who are familiar with the library pronounce it one of the best in this country for nomenclature work. Prof. Chester was himself the author of a dictionary of minerals, which treated of both their history and of the etymology of their names. The minerals and library probably could not be duplicated for less than $15,000.

STEINGUT LEARNS SOME LAW. Hears That the Wife Who Divorced Hin

Still Has Her Dower Right. HELD ON LA SAVOIE AS ELOPERS. Simon Steingut, the Mayor of Second avenue, intended to get married next week to an actress who has been playing the leading part in "A Bottled Up Good Thing," which has met with more or less success on the New Jersey circuit. He announced last night that the ceremony was postponed until his political pull can clear him of legal entanglements.

Steingut's first wife obtained an absolute divorce, and Steingut shortly afterward announced that he was free to marry the actress. Several lawyers of the Essex Market Bar Association assured him that Market Bar Association assured him that his second marriage would not be legal unless performed in another State.

He was willing to marry in New Jersey, and announced a few days ago that he was alout to buy the house at 415 East Sixth street. Steingut has not as yet taken title, but signed a contract with its owner and paid a deposit.

Yesterday a lawyer friend told him that if he bought the house his first wife would have a dower right in it. Steingut turned all colors.

I am divorced, undt I haf to still stig py dot vife?" he asked.
"Sure," said the friend. "If you got the divorce from the wife you would be all right; now you're all wrong.

Steingut went all over the East Side yesterday afternoon in search of Assemblymen who would promise to approve a bill to change the existing law. TROLLEY CAR KILLS A BOY. Son of Editor W. C. Sous Run Over on
